

Social Planner

Do you have skills in social planning? Would you like to work within a multidisciplinary firm to broaden your skills? Do you like independence whilst being part of a supportive and energetic team?

We are looking for an energetic and experienced Social Planner to work in our Sydney or Melbourne office to support our Economic and Social Planning Division.

Hill PDA is a boutique property consultancy. Our ever expanding team includes highly qualified land economists, urban planners, valuers and geographers.

To find out more about Hill PDA please go to www.hillpda.com

To apply for the role, you will need to:

- Have a suitable degree or experience in the field of social planning;
- Have experience with community consultation;
- Be an excellent communicator both verbally and written;
- Be keen to progress your career and develop the social planning focus of the firm;
- Be keen to share your experience and knowledge with colleagues;
- Be able to work full time; and
- Be keen to learn new skills whilst contributing to a fun and exciting team environment!

Essentially your key roles would be to critically evaluate client's requests, coordinate planning studies and projects and undertake community consultation and presentations. Your role would also include report and proposal writing, client correspondence, site inspections, field work and project management.

In return we will:

- Provide the support you need to grow and develop your skills to become a competent senior member of our Team;
- Encourage you to participate in setting the future direction of the business;
- Provide opportunities for you to work in existing or new offices across Australia; and
- Offer an attractive salary package.

For more information or an informal chat about the role, please call Sarah Hill, Director on 02 9252 877 or email your CV to steven.miller@hillpda.com by February 27th, 2012.
